Friday, November 3rd

- 10:10-11:05      Session I: “What implications does Trump’s pivot away has on the growing military powers of China? North Korea’s nuclearization? Is ‘Pivot away’ an effective strategy for peacekeeping in the East Asia region?”
Location: 345 Williams Hall
- 11:45 – 1:00      Lunch
- 1:25 – 2:20      Session II: “It has been argued that there is a wider cultural pivot away from an Atlantic- to a Pacific-dominated world. What is the validity of this argument and do nationalist cultural currents threaten this?”
Location: McDonald Lecture Hall, Eckel Hall
- 2:30 – 3:30      Session III: “Earlier this year, the State Department officially announced that the ‘Pivot’ to Asia is over. How has the Trump Administration pivoted away thus far? What are some examples of pivot away and what are some consequences and/or long term implications?”
Location: McDonald Lecture Hall, Eckel Hall
- 3:30 – 4:00      Session IV: Could the fight against terrorism act as diplomatic leverage towards a Trump rapprochement with East Asian nations"
Location: McDonald Lecture Hall, Eckel Hall
- 4:00 – 6:30      Dinner
- 6:30 – 8:00      Keynote Address: “Structural Change in Northeast Asia: Between Rising China and US Populism”
