News & World Report

Cazenovia College is an independent, coeducational college, located in Cazenovia, New York, offering baccalaureate programs in the liberal arts and professional studies.

Embracing student success as its primary mission, Cazenovia College comprises a diverse, yet close-knit residential community that creates educational experiences that are individualized for students, matching skill sets with academic programs and co-curricular offerings.

This “one student at a time” approach to the educational experience is what sets Cazenovia apart from other colleges and universities.

The Bachelor of Professional Studies degree in Management with a specialization in Accounting prepares students for business careers that are accounting-oriented such as financial analyst, business manager, management accountant, financial consultant, financial planner or broker. The program is designed so students can gain a proficiency in both accounting and business-related courses. This program is fully accredited through the International Assembly for Collegiate Business Education.
