CAZENOVIA COLLEGE

Named One of
"America's Best Colleges" by U.S.
News & World Report

Cazenovia College is an independent, coeducational college, located in Cazenovia, New York, offering baccalaureate programs in the liberal arts and professional studies.

Embracing student success as its primary mission, Cazenovia College comprises a diverse, yet close-knit residential community that creates educational experiences that are individualized for students, matching skill sets with academic programs and co-curricular offerings.

This "one student at a time" approach to the educational experience is what sets Cazenovia apart from other colleges and universities.

The Criminal Justice and Homeland Security Studies program provides students with the tools they need to enter into a career in the fields of law enforcement and homeland security, to pursue a graduate degree, or attend law school. The program is designed to educate students to be critical thinkers who communicate effectively, and who act in an ethical manner. The program has a rigorous curriculum taught by dedicated faculty uniquely qualified in their academic disciplines. A major in Criminal Justice and Homeland Security Studies and a minor in Criminal Justice are available.

CRIMINAL JUSTICE AND HOMELAND SECURITY STUDIES

SAMPLE COURSEWORK

Criminal Justice and Homeland Security majors will participate in an internship in the career path of their choice, such as:

- criminal justice
- homeland security
- law
- youth/juvenile delinquency
- private investigation
- probation and parole

Internships allow students to assess their interest and apply their classroom knowledge in real-world, hands-on experiences in the field. The program director and the cooperating agencies assess the best placement for students based on the student's academic preparation, past experiences and personal maturity.
